Anti-racism refers to action taken against racial hatred, bias, systemic racism, and the oppression of marginalized groups. It is usually structured around conscious and deliberate actions to provide equitable opportunities for all people. This is done on an individual and systemic level. APHN invites us all to engage in Anti-racism work by familiarizing ourselves with commonly used terminology, confronting acts and systems of racial discrimination, learning our history and working to change personal biases. APHN has compiled a resource list of videos, papers and articles which are helpful in engaging in action against racism.
